Re: *McElravey v. Vandewalker

Dear Matt:

I want to take the opportunity to thank you for your successful efforts in mediating this case. To say that this case was one of the most complex and hotly contested matters would be a gross understatement. You went beyond the call of duty in conducting the multi-session mediation which began at 9:00 a.m. on a Monday morning and did not conclude until the parties finally "inked the deal" at 12:01 the following Wednesday morning. I am confident that very few other mediators would have put in the same amount of hard work and personal effort to get this matter resolved.

I think you would agree that when the process began all involved were of the impression that a lot of work needed to be done in order to get the two parties to reach a compromise. However, you did not waiver and it became clear that a settlement was a reality once you got the parties motivated, had them set goals and directed them to charge after those goals in an unstoppable manner.

I have had the pleasure of knowing you both professionally and socially and witnessed your skills both as a litigator and now as a mediator. This matter involved truly unique issues and a dispute among two parties with strong personalities against each other. You were able to quickly get a grasp of the important and relevant issues and wade through and discard the unimportant ones. The settlement you fashioned saved the parties thousands of dollars in litigation costs and allowed them to continue on with their lives knowing that they reached an equitable resolution.

While this particular case involved the breach of a Co-Habitation Agreement and family law issues, I strongly recommend your services as a mediator in any kind of civil litigation without reservation.

Very truly yours,

GURNEE & DANIELS LLP
